Career and College Readiness Course There is one more opportunity this fall for learners to sign up for the College and Career Readiness (CCR) course. It starts December 5th. Click HERE to sign up on the interest list.

CCR is a great course designed to help adult learners gain a deeper understanding of their working styles in all types of environments from the classroom to work and even in one's personal life – all while developing leadership skills! See flyer below.

INTD 500: Career and College Readiness

This course is designed to help you develop a deeper understanding of how you work best, and how you can take a leadership role in team development. We discuss extensively various aspects of communication, how to manage your emotions, how you communicate with others, how people feel in those conversations, and how to change the way we communicate in order to get more value out of our personal and professional relationships. These soft skills and more are the skill sets that students use to push forward in difficult times and they are what employers are looking for in ideal candidates. The Career and College Readiness course can help you develop tools to support every aspect of your life - academic, professional, and personal.
